This collection task is an ode to my typeface collection of a total of 2998 typefaces.

The following 20 slides contain my favourite 20 typefaces from this collection accompanied by riddles I've written as a hint for what the typeface may be about and where it might originate from.

If someone is successfully able to answer these clues, or is intrigued enough, they get to have a typeface that they wish to from this collection.
