

MEMORIES WITHIN WALLS

In the memory of my Beloved Mother

watercolour, charcoal powder, water and pencil

Ephemeral

Lasting a very short time, short-lived, transitory.

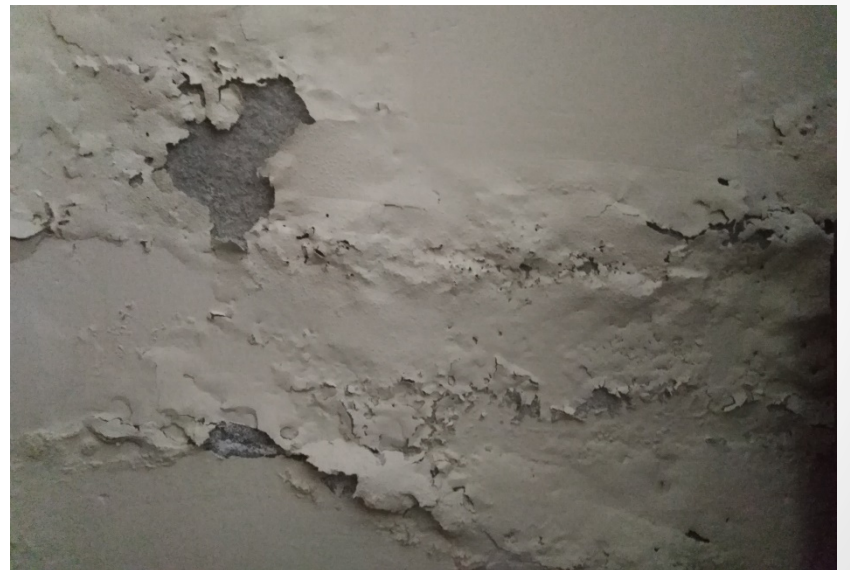

A glitch in matrix

Time

Life

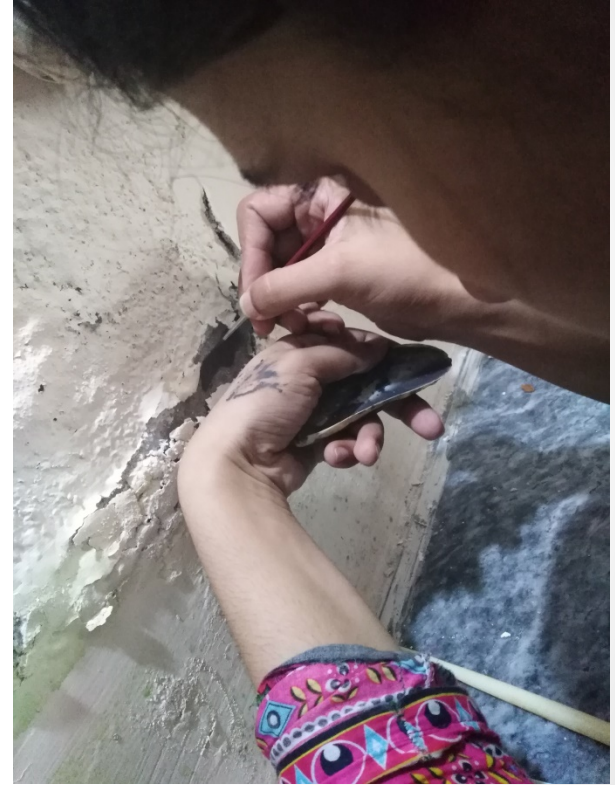

Flashbacks

A door, and in silence
Darkness burst out
Memories from heaven to earth
Walked in wet and without tracks

Consciousness
Lifted the veil of illusion
Disclosed the essence
Behind all this

Chaos

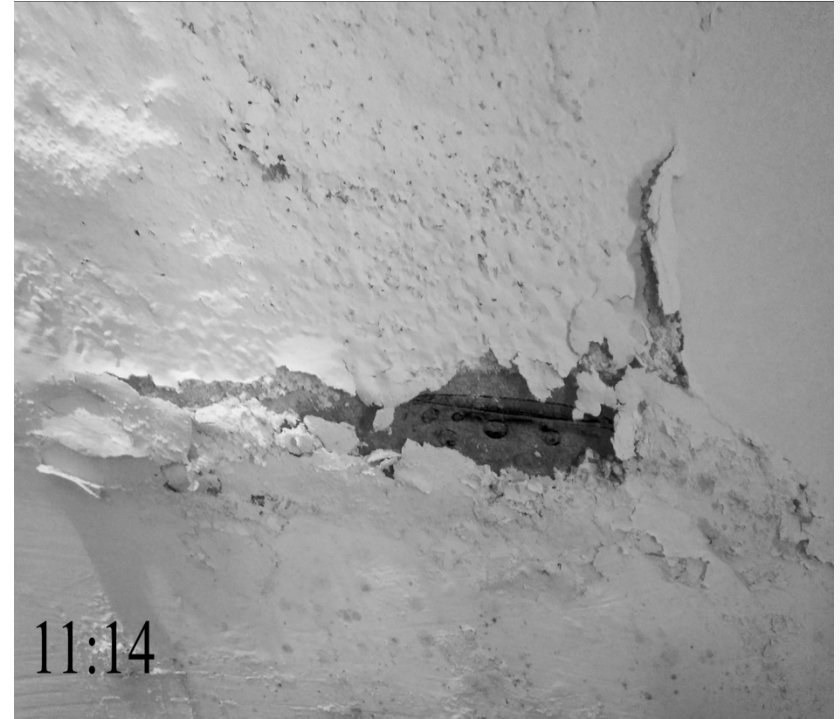

Pictures taken as the painting (miniature technique) was done on damp walls with time recording. The change is quite visible within short period of time.

I will follow you
Take me, I will tell you
To the refuge of your silence
Let's see how this life is Without your memory

Final pictures taken of the ephemeral art over damp wall with natural change.

Reminiscence
of those days

Memories traveled across the blue
until it reaches the golden
The arc of horizon
where it endures
through a whim of fate
